ANSWER TO DIRECT PURCHASER
PLAINTIFFS' THIRD AMENDED AND CONSOLIDATED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Tyson Foods, Inc. Tyson Prepared Foods, Inc., and Tyson Fresh Meats, Inc. ("Tyson"), by and through the undersigned counsel, submits its answer and affirmative defenses to the Complaint filed by Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs ("Plaintiffs") on January 15, 2020 as follows:

1. Tyson denies that it is a pork integrator, a term inaccurately used by the Plaintiffs' complaint, because between 2009 and 2018, Tyson purchased approximately 95% of its hogs from independent hog farmers. Paragraph 1 contains Plaintiffs' characterization of their claims and/or legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Tyson denies such characterizations and/or conclusions.

2. Tyson specifically denies the conspiracy alleged in the Complaint. Tyson denies the allegations in Paragraph 2.

3. Tyson admits only that Tyson and some other pork producers submit information to Agri Stats and Agri Stats reports anonymized information to Tyson for pro-competitive benchmarking purposes. Tyson lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 3 and, therefore, denies these allegations. Tyson generally and specifically denies the conspiracy alleged in the Complaint.

4. 224. Paragraph 224 does not contain factual allegations to which a response is required. To the extent a response is required, Tyson also demands a jury trial as set forth below.

ADDITIONAL ALLEGATIONS AND GENERAL DENIAL

Tyson denies all allegations in the Complaint unless Tyson has expressly admitted those allegations herein. Where an allegation in the Complaint is directed at another Defendant or a party that is not affiliated with Tyson, then except as otherwise expressly stated, Tyson denies the allegations set forth in the Complaint on the basis that it denies the knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief concerning the truth of such allegations. Further, unless otherwise expressly admitted, Tyson denies any allegations in the headings, footnotes or in other places in the Complaint, to the extent that any such allegations require a response. Any headings, subheadings or similar text that Tyson has included in this Answer are for the convenience of the Court and the parties, and are not intended to be nor shall they be construed as an admission of any fact by Tyson.

AFFIRMITIVE DEFENSES

Without assuming any burden that it otherwise would not bear, and reserving the right to assert additional defenses as those defenses become known during discovery, Tyson asserts the following separate and additional defenses pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8.

FIRST DEFENSE

1. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations.
2. The statute of limitations for Plaintiffs' claims is four years. 15 U.S.C. §15 (b); Jackson v. Swift Eckrich, Inc., 53 F.3d 1452, 1460 (8th Cir. 1995) (applying the Sherman Act's four-year statute of limitations to claims under the Packers and Stockyards Act). Plaintiffs filed their original Complaint in the above captioned litigation on June 29, 2018 (the "Original Complaint”). The information Plaintiffs allege in support of their claims had been public for more than four years before the Original Complaint was filed.

3. Plaintiffs’ effort to implicate Tyson in the alleged conspiracy relies on language set forth in Tyson’s 2009 10K Report, which would have been available to the public for almost ten years before Plaintiffs filed their Original Complaint. Compl. ¶ 78. The Plaintiffs’ Complaint cites other public statements made by Tyson. See, e.g., ¶ 126 (“In 2010 Tyson reported a 3.3% decrease in its Pork sales volume coupled with increased export sales, which also accounted for a decrease in its capacity utilization rate.”).

4. Information pled by Plaintiffs regarding the pork industry as alleged dates from more than four years before the Original Complaint was filed. See, e.g., Compl. ¶¶ 84 (“Between 1988 and 2015, the top four pork integrators . . . increased their market share from 34 percent in 1988 to just under 70 percent in 2015.”), 120 (alleging production cuts in 2009, 2010, and 2013), 121 (quoting a 2009 Pork Powerhouses: “[T]he nation’s largest 25 producers have cut sow numbers . . . [by] a drop of 6.4%.”).

5. Tyson’s participation in trade associations and meetings was public more than four years before the Original Complaint was filed. (See, e.g., id. ¶¶ 104 (noting Defendants’ participation in the National Pork Industry Conference since 2010), 112 (identifying Tyson executives as “registered attendees” for the 2012 “Annual Meat Conference” hosted by the American Meat Institute (“AMI”)), 118 (referencing AMI’s “International Meat, Poultry & Seafood Convention and Exposition in 2009, 2011, and 2012”).

6. Plaintiffs’ fraudulent concealment claims were dismissed by the Court on October 16, 2020. Mem. Op. & Order at 21, In re Pork Antitrust Litigation, No. 0:18-cv-01776-JRT-HB (D. Minn. Oct. 16, 2020).

7. Plaintiffs’ Complaint is time-barred.

SECOND DEFENSE

8. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the equitable doctrine of laches.

9. The doctrine of laches stems from "the desire to avoid unfairness that can result from the prosecution of stale claims." Goodman v. McDonnell Douglas Corp., 606 F.2d 800, 805 (8th Cir. 1979). Specifically, the laches defense is available when there is: (1) lack of diligence by the party against whom the defense is asserted, and (2) prejudice to the party asserting the defense." National Railroad Passenger Corp. v. Morgan, 536 U.S. 101, 121-22 (2002) (quoting Kansas v. Colorado, 514 U.S. 673, 687 (1995)).

10. Tyson hereby incorporates Paragraphs 3-6 of Tyson's Affirmative Defenses, supra, in support of this Second Defense. Plaintiffs demonstrated an unreasonable lack of diligence in bringing their claims. Additionally, Plaintiffs' unreasonable delay in bringing their claims has resulted in economic prejudice to Tyson. Tyson continued to invest in its relationships with direct pork-product purchasers while Plaintiffs delayed their claims alleging misconduct in Tyson's pork-related activities. Tyson also continued to pay to participate in Agri Stats. This unreasonable lack of diligence in raising their claims bars them now.

11. Accordingly, the equitable principles embodied by the doctrine of laches bar Plaintiffs from seeking relief at this delayed juncture.

THIRD DEFENSE

12. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs failed to exercise reasonable care to mitigate, prevent or avoid any alleged damages.

13. Tyson hereby incorporates Paragraphs 3-6 of Tyson's Affirmative Defenses, supra, in support of this Third Defense.

14. If Plaintiffs believed that Defendants were unfairly and anti-competitively raising prices for their direct purchasers through the use of Agri Stats and by conspiring at trade forums for approximately nine years or more before filing their Original Complaint, Plaintiffs had an obligation to switch to pork integrators that are not alleged to have been part of the alleged conspiracy, including but not limited to those that process specialty pork such as organic, pasture-raised and/or locally-sourced.

15. Plaintiffs' failure to exercise reasonable care to mitigate damages was the complete or partial cause of any damages Plaintiffs are alleged to have suffered.

FOURTH DEFENSE

16. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of waiver as a result of Plaintiffs' own acts and omissions.

17. Tyson hereby incorporates Paragraphs 3-6 of Tyson's Affirmative Defenses, supra, in support of this Fourth Defense.

18. According to facts alleged in Plaintiffs' Complaint, allegations of the existence of trade coordination have been public since at least 2007, if not earlier. For example, Plaintiffs rely on excerpts from 2007 and 2009 articles to allege that pork producers were making the productions cuts central to Plaintiffs' allegations. See Tyson's Affirmative Defenses ¶ 4.

19. Plaintiffs' conduct in continuing to purchase pork products under a system of allegedly artificially inflated pricing is evidence of Plaintiffs' waiver of any right to bring this suit. Plaintiffs' conduct was, and continues to be, inconsistent with any intention other than to waive their right to bring suit.

20. Plaintiffs, by their actions, accepted the benefits of an ongoing relationship with Tyson and relinquished their right to bring suit.

FIFTH DEFENSE

21. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of estoppel.

22. Tyson hereby incorporates Paragraphs 3-6 of Tyson's Affirmative Defenses, supra, in support of this Fifth Defense.

23. Tyson relied in good faith, and to its detriment, on Plaintiffs' actions in continuing to purchase pork products without complaining about the use of Agri Stats or the alleged existence of industry-wide price coordination.

24. Plaintiffs are therefore estopped, in whole or in part, from pursuing their claims.

SIXTH DEFENSE

25. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, due to ratification of, and consent to, the alleged conduct of Tyson.

26. Tyson hereby incorporates Paragraphs 3-6 of Tyson's Affirmative Defenses, supra, in support of this Sixth Defense.

27. Tyson's participation in various trade association meetings and attendance at industry events was public for years before Plaintiffs' Original Complaint. See supra ¶5. Additionally, Plaintiffs benefit from Tyson's participation in these trade association meetings and other industry events, in part because these meetings and events, among other things, promote lobbying efforts, industry safety, animal health, training, and education.

28. Accordingly, because Plaintiffs have been aware for years of the same conduct they now challenge, Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of ratification.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

29. Without admitting any violation of the Sherman Act, Plaintiffs' claims and/or entitlement to damages for their claims are barred, in whole or in part, by non-settling Defendants' right to offset any amounts paid to Plaintiffs by any Defendants who have settled, or do settle, Plaintiffs' claims in this action.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

30. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part, to the extent they seek improper multiple damage awards, and damage awards duplicative of those sought in other actions, in violation of the Due Process guarantees of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

NINTH DEFENSE

31. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the alleged damages are speculative and too difficult to ascertain.

32. Claims for damages under Clayton Act § 4 must fail when the alleged damages are unduly speculative or difficult to ascertain. See, e.g., Associated Gen. Contractors of Cal., Inc. v. Cal. State Council of Carpenters, 459 U.S. 519, 545 (1983) (concluding that the “tenuous and speculative character of the relationship between the alleged antitrust violation” and the alleged injury, along with other factors, “weigh heavily against judicial enforcement” of the antitrust claim); Sharp v. United Airlines, Inc., 967 F.2d 404, 409 (10th Cir. 1992) (rejecting antitrust standing in part on the basis of speculative damages); Home Placement Serv., Inc. v. Providence Journal Co., 819 F.2d 1199, 1205 (1st Cir. 1987) (“If the plaintiff’s proffered evidence permits no more than ‘pure speculation and guesswork,’ then the damage evidence is insufficient as a matter of law.” (citations omitted)); see also IQ Dental Supply, Inc. v. Henry Schein, Inc., 924 F.3d 57, 66-67 (2d Cir. 2019) (“Although ‘some degree of uncertainty stems from the nature of antitrust law,’ a high degree of speculation in a damages calculation suggests that ‘a given plaintiff is an inefficient engine of enforcement.’ . . . As the district court correctly ascertained, calculating IQ’s damages essentially would require the creation of an ‘alternative universe.’ . . . Thus, IQ’s damages calculation rests on multiple layers of speculation. No amount of expert testimony can adequately ameliorate the highly speculative nature of IQ's alleged losses." (citations omitted)).

33. Plaintiffs allege that "[a]s a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs and the class members paid artificially inflated prices for pork during the Class Period. Such prices exceeded the amount they would have paid if the price for pork had been determined by a competitive market." Compl. ¶ 7.

34. Pork product pricing varies based on, among other things, (i) the integrator, (ii) the complex, (iii) complex-specific factors, (iv) feed and other input cost fluctuations, and (v) both local and global market supply and demand.

35. The large number of factors that affect pork product pricing renders any damages calculation speculative.

36. Plaintiffs' claims of damages are therefore too speculative or difficult to ascertain.

TENTH DEFENSE

37. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent the contracts pursuant to which Plaintiffs purchased pork products contain valid and enforceable clauses waiving and agreeing not to pursue class action claims against Tyson or clauses providing a different forum for the resolution of their claims.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

38. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent the contracts pursuant to which Plaintiffs purchased pork products contain valid and enforceable clauses waiving the right to a trial by jury on any claims against Tyson.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

39. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent the contracts pursuant to which Plaintiffs purchased pork products contain valid and enforceable clauses waiving claims against Tyson under any previous contract purchase arrangement.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

40. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs lack standing under the Sherman Act.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

41. Without admitting any violation of the Sherman Act, Plaintiffs' claims and/or entitlement to damages for their claims are barred, in whole or in part, by non-settling Defendants' right to offset any amounts paid to Plaintiffs by any Defendants who have settled, or do settle, Plaintiffs' claims in this action.

FIFTHTEENTH DEFENSE

42. Tyson adopts and incorporates by reference any and all other defenses asserted by any other Defendant to the extent that the defense would apply to Tyson.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Tyson respectfully requests that judgment be entered in favor of Tyson and the other Defendants and against Plaintiffs, dismissing the Complaint in its entirety with prejudice. Tyson further requests that this Court (i) award Tyson its costs and disbursements, and (ii) award such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 38, Defendant Tyson demands a trial by jury on all claims so triable.
